AMERICAN COLONIAL COINS AND TOKENS.

- 30 432 New York, in America (1694-1719), Eagle displayed, Rev., Venus and Cupid under a palm tree. Brass, and I think, the only fine specimen known in this metal. Excessively rare. (See Crosby, p. 343.) 34
 433 1722. Louisiana Cent. m. m. H. Fine rev., and scarce
 20 434 Admiral Vernon's Medal. He took Porto Bello, &c.

 10 443 VERMONT. 1785. "Vermontis Rex publica." Thickly wooded hills with the sun at the left, and large plow separated from the date by a line. Rev., Face of sun with diverging rays, and "Stella decima quarta." Probably a pattern of coinage rejected on account of its weak execution. The rarest of all Vermont cents, and the best specimen of this variety known. (See Crosby, p. 186.)
 36 444 CONSTITUTION. 1785. Cent. Head to right. Good and

- 497 Bust laureated of George III. to left. "Georgivs III. Dei Gratia." Rev., The same as last. Border milled; edge engraved. Proof and of a beautiful high bronze color. 19½
This unique piece was purchased from the Clay collection. It combines, as will be seen by the above description, the head of the coin of England with the reverse of a Washington cent, combining a connecting link between a coin purely designed for circulation in America, and an English token or coin of the same period.
- 498 DEDICATE OF 495. Struck in tin. Poor.
- 499 1792. Bust to right. Rev., General, &c. Electro. Uncirculated. 19
